

Shrewsbury Up & Comers Respect Marshall Guidelines

Thank you for volunteering to be a Respect Marshall at today's game. Without your support, our children would not be able to play. As well as wearing one of our lovely and clean high-viz vests, here is a brief outline of the role's responsibilities today. Enjoy the game!

- The home Respect Marshall will inform the away team Respect Marshall and Manager/Coach as to where their Parents and Spectators can stand behind the Designated Spectator Area to watch the game.
- In these unprecedented times, we would also ask that you help your coaches in reminding all spectators of the need to observe current social distancing guidelines, and support people in checking in using the NHS Covid-19 App (QR codes below).
- Should any issues arise with the spectators the respective Respect Marshalls will inform their Managers/Coaches of these so they can deal with any poor behaviour as needed/if required. Managers/Coaches can (will) then bring these incidents to the attention of the referee if required.
- During the game the Respect Marshalls will be responsible for the behaviour of their club members and spectators. If the Referee needs to, he/she will, during a stoppage in play, approach the Respect Marshall(s) and ask him/her to assist in dealing with any problems that may occur. The Respect Marshall is not above reproach or exempt from being reported for misconduct.
- Respect Marshalls will approach their Managers/Coaches should their behaviour become a cause for concern.
- Respect Marshalls should never place themselves or others in danger at any time/or consequence.
- The FA Respect Code must be followed by the Respect Marshalls at all times and any incidents/issues requiring attention within The Code (on the day of the game) must be reported through the Club Secretary or CWO to the League and/or County Association as required to deal with.
